LEFT AND RIGHT ANNOTATIONS

LEFT: Mark, note, or briefly summarize anything the author left for you to find that stood out, including:

* Arguments/Claims/Inferences
* Thematic ideas or messages
* Evidence (logos – facts, ethos – expert quotes, pathos – emotional stories/language)
* SOAPSTone (Speaker, Occasion, Audience, Purpose, Subject, Tone)

RIGHT: Mark, note, or briefly summarize any connections you made or things you wondered while reading:

* Connections: history, literature, current events, music, film, other subjects
* Opposing opinions * Questions
* Significance (future effects)
* Agree/disagree and why

* Please remember to include page numbers in parentheses with each of your annotations.